The Circus is Coming Back to Town

The circus is coming to town. That's because Eli March and “Scramble James” Hughes are more than just a two-man juggling act. They are really a two-man circus act who will be featured at the Porterville Fair to be held May 15-19. March and Hughes did win the Gold Medal at the 2018 International Juggling Association's competition.

But they do so much more. They provide a unique and joyful roving performance. Their innovative, energetic, contemporary vaudeville show includes award-winning partner juggling, breathtaking acrobatics, epic combination tricks and they also provide a magic show that's an optical illusion will take one on a magical juggling journey. They deliver their show with charm and plenty of comedy as they zip through the grounds on their brightly lit electric seatless unicycles.

Their act has also included fire and they won the 2017 and 2018 Fire Entertainer of the Year competitions. Circus L's exploits can be followed @CircusLuminescence on Instagram or Facebook or by visiting www.CircusL.com.

Circus Luminescence combines their knee-slapping comedic wit and award-winning technical skill. They utilize innovative choreography, juggling, acrobatics, magic, clowning, and more that's a treat for the eyes, ears, and soul.

The schedule for Circus Luminescence will perform Wednesday, May 15-6:00, 7:15 & 8:30 PM; Thursday, May 16 – 6:30, 8:15 PM; Friday, May 17 – 7:00, 8:30, 9:30 PM; Saturday, May 18 – 4:30, 7:00, 9:30 PM and Sunday, May 19-4:30, 6:30, 8:30 PM.
